

A Week In Paradise Bagpipe School

St. Peter's By the Sea Presbyterian Church

6410 Palos Verdes Drive South

Rancho Palos Verdes, California 90275

Featuring:

Ian Whitelaw & Murray Henderson

Spend a week at the beach studying the great highland bagpipe!

July 6th to July 11th, 2009

"This school provided a minimum of a year's worth of world-class instruction on piobaireachd-playing as well as Ceol Beag. I have also attended other piping schools. I have found that it is rare to find instruction that is applicable to one's entire style and repertoire. However, this school provided just that type of instruction!"

Mr. Whitelaw and Mr. Henderson achieved it with their expertise, patience, and ability to explain music theory, Scottish piping idiom, piobaireachd interpretation. And of course, everyone in the course walked away from it with a professionally set-up set of pipes with other-worldly tone.

I recommend this course to anyone truly interested in improving their piping.

Melissa Bantz, Lander, Wyoming

Ian Whitelaw

(310) 634-9726

ian@aceltictraveler.com

www.aceltictraveler.com

Included in the school of piping will be:

- The study of piobaireachd
- Extensive MSR training
- The language of canntaireachd will be covered in detail along with a history of Scottish music and traditions.
- The art of setting up the great highland bagpipe to produce the best possible sound and how to maintain it.
- Murray Henderson – Master Musician and one of the worlds greatest players will talk about the art of reed and bagpipe making.
- Competing in solos and bands
- All types of reed manipulation

Tuition: $500.00

Accommodation: $50.00 dollars per night

located at: Mary and Joseph Retreat Center:

5300 Crest Road, Rancho Palos Verdes, Ca 90275

www.maryjoseph.org

For information contact Sydne - 310-377-4867